Translation: Title: Course-work for Form 4 (Environment)

Aim: (i) To clean the drains (ii) to reduce pollution

Objectives: After the activity, I am able to

(i) develop the litter-free attitude. (ii) to make the drains beautiful

(iii) to work as a group.

Description of Activities:

On the 12 April 2012, the Chinese Language Society and Nature Club members took part in a mud balls making session. We added rice-rinsed water, organic material together with mud/clay and mixed it together. Later we shaped them into balls. We work as a team to finish the job. Then we kept them in an allocated place

Peranan My role
Pada hari tersebut, saya telah meluangkan masa serta menyumbangkan tenaga untuk membuat mudball.
Semasa aktiviti berlangsung, saya telah membuat mudball. Seterusnya, sifat yong ada dalam diri saya sepatutnya juga ada pada kalangan masyarakat agar pencemaran tidah akan berleluasa.
Keson Effect/Impact
Aktiviti ini telah memberi kesan dan membawa perubahan terhadap sikap saya supaya peka terhadap isu-isu alam sekitar-Saya sedar bahawa menghargai alam sekitar merupakan tanggungjawab bersama.
My comments
Komen saya:
Kerja amal ini berjalan dengan lancar Dengan bantuan daripada rakan-rakan saya, aktiviti membuat mudball ini berjaya dihabiskan dalam masa yang singkat.

Translation: My role: On that day, I sacrificed my time and energy in making mud balls. During the activity, felt that what I feel inside me should be felt by everyone in society, so that we can address the pollution problem.

Impact: This activity had made me change my attitude and make me more aware of environmental issues. I realized that the need to appreciate nature is my responsibility.

My Comments: My course work progresses smoothly with team work. Together with my friends, we completed our task in a short period of time.

Kami bekerjasama membertukhannya menjadi bulat.
