6. Working Ethic : Maintaining a good work ethic helps you garner the respect of your peers, like coming in on time at the workplace and doing the work that is assigned to you on time. It helps you maintain a reputation of someone reliable and dependable. I also believe the importance of maintaining professionalism and accountability. These will enable me to perform more effectively and efficiently at the workplace.

7. Personal Motto : “Do unto others what you want to do unto you.”
Be always kind
