

Dr. Rohizani Yaakub is a senior lecturer and Associate Professor at the School of Educational Studies, Universiti Sains Malaysia. Her major research areas include Curriculum and Pedagogy, Teacher Studies, and Global Citizenship Education. She has supervised 12 Phd theses, 5 MA theses and 57 M.Ed dissertations. She held posts as Principal Investigator for many research projects and has contributed significantly as consultant for the Curriculum Development Division, Ministry of Education Malaysia on various capacities. Publication wise, AP. Dr. Rohizani Yaakub has published 8 books, 8 monographs, 30 teaching and learning modules, and 40 journal articles. AP. Dr. Rohizani has presented in more than 50 conferences locally and internationally. She has an extensive experience in facilitating workshops for teachers on creative pedagogy.

Currently, AP. Dr. Rohizani Yaakub is the principal investigator for a research project funded by APCEIU and a co-researcher for a research headed by the Philippines Normal University, funded by UNESCO Bangkok. At the national level, she is the Permanent Panel Consultant for developing the Standard Curriculum Bahasa Melayu, a project commissioned by the Institute of Teacher Education, Ministry of Education Malaysia.