

BIODATA

Mr E Way Chong

Regional Director (Southeast Asia & Japan)
QS (Quacquarelli Symonds)
United Kingdom

E Way Chong is currently serving as regional director for QS Quacquarelli Symonds within the Southeast Asian & Japan region. He has recently completed his triple crown accredited Master of Business Administration from Lancaster University, United Kingdom.

During the early days of his career, E Way was involved in international and domestic students recruitment for private higher education institutions in Malaysia. He has recruited international students from different countries to study in highly diverse international universities in Malaysia.

In his current role, he is working in the ASEAN region to help universities to fulfil its potential which involves internationalization, research and global reputation building. He is also working closely with several ministries in different countries and senior leadership in universities to assist them in their aspiration to become truly world class universities.