

Webinar on Moving Forward with Online, Flexible and Distance Learning (OFDL)

23 February 2023

BIODATA

Dr John Cribbin

Deputy Director (Academic Services)

HKU School of Professional and Continuing Education
Hong Kong

John Cribbin is a career University Administrator. A graduate in Geography of University College London, he also holds a Masters degree in HRM/ Training from Leicester University and an Ed.D. from Nottingham University. He has worked at Kings College London, the UK Open University and the University of Hong Kong. At HKU he has worked in the Registry, the Faculties of Education and Arts and HKU SPACE. In 2019 he was awarded a Fellowship of the University of London.

When he joined HKU SPACE in 1990 it was the Department of Extra-Mural Studies and one of his first tasks was to produce the Working Party Report that led to the establishment of the School of Professional and Continuing Education in January 1992.

His major duties include corporate governance as the Company Secretary in support of the Board of Directors and its Committees; the servicing of the School's Academic and Management Board, the work of the School's Registry Affairs and Quality Assurance teams, and the Centre for Teaching and Learning. He participates in the senior management of the School as a member of the Directorate team. He is responsible for the application internally of the HK Government's Qualifications Framework. He has published in the field of lifelong learning and transnational education and has made a number of conference presentations.

He also represented Hong Kong at the Asian Cricket Council and International

Cricket Council and served on a number of their committees while Secretary and Chairman of Cricket Hong Kong from 1990 until 2019.