

SEAMEO-Singapore Students Challenge (SSSC 2023)

Theme “Sustainable and Resilient Communities”

25 – 27 April, 2 – 3 May 2023 (Virtual Workshops)

BIODATA

Phinith Chanthalangsy

Regional Advisor
Social and Human Sciences Unit
UNESCO Asia Pacific Regional Bureau for Education (UNESCO Bangkok)

Philosopher by training, Phinith currently leads the Social and Human Sciences Unit at the UNESCO Bangkok Office. His fields of expertise are Ethics and Philosophy, Human Rights and Social Inclusion, and Cultural Studies.

Since he has joined UNESCO in 2007 (HQ, Rabat Office, and Harare Office), he has championed collective work around Strategic Reflections, Technical Advice to Governments, UN Global and Regional Programmatic Implementation, Partnership Building, and Dialogues with Civil Organisations. Prior to joining UNESCO, he worked as a Research Fellow at the Ecole Française d'Extrême-Orient and the National Library in Vientiane, Laos.