

Speaker's Biography

Kamaleswaran Jayarajah, Ph.D.

SEAMEO Secretariat, Bangkok Thailand

Dr. Kamaleswaran Jayarajah is the Research, Evaluation and Assessment Specialist (REAS) of Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO) in Bangkok since 2022. Dr. Kamal's career in Malaysia's civil service spans over a decade, throughout which he has progressively held various portfolios, including in the Ministry of Education of Malaysia (MOE). His longest service was with the Strategic Planning and International Relations Department for which he served for over four (4) years where he has closely worked with the UNESCO, Middle East, African, European and Asian countries. Implementing cooperation's through Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), coordinating working visits, conducting Joint Working Groups (JWG) meetings and bilateral discussions were among his responsibilities throughout his tenure in MOE Malaysia. He has also published articles, presented in conferences and carried out workshops related to Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) education. Dr. Kamal graduated with a Bachelor of Science Education (Hons) from the University of Malaysia Sabah (UMS) in 2008, Masters in Science Education from the Sultan Idris Education University (UPSI) in 2012 and completed his PhD in Science Education from University of Malaya (UM) in 2017 which he received Ryoichi Sasakawa Young Leaders Fellowship Scholarship Award (SYLFF).