PART II: Information about the School's Values Education Activity/Programme

1. Title of the school's programme

Ethics and Values for Students of Piyajatpattana School(EVSP)

2. Summary of the programme

Because of Piyajatpattana school has been under the patronage of HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn so the school provides the programs and education involving a lot of ethics and values, activities which students participated in from 2007 till now. In 2007 there was TONKLA Club or Youth Club in school. The members of this club must be caring and sharing that is the base of being a good people.

In 2011, EVSP was provided for all of students and participation of Srinakarinwirot University, Moral centre of Thailand, Parent-Teacher Association of Piyajatpattana School, Chulachomklao Royal Military Academy, Sukhothai Thammathirat Open University, Vet military School, Sutatamaram Temple, Bureau of Groundwater Resource zone 3, Saraburi, Promanee Sub district administrative Organization and Khaokok Temple. The plan was written in a simple way to make it easily understandable and possible to be done by students. As a result, the EVSP has been widely accepted by all students of Piyajatpattana School and now there are 53 mini ethics and values programs within the school that are managed and monitored by students and guided by teachers and council. The programs that school has running are many and varied ranging from :

1. Young Leaders
2. Tonkla Club aim is(Keeping sharing and caring to other people not only at school but in other communities and cities)
3. Junior students of the school showing respect to the seniors
4. Classroom discipline
5. Saving power by conserving energy (the switching off of lights when classrooms are not in use)
6. Students Bank
7. The students themselves elected to have a mobile phone free school (Mobile phones are switch off on entry to school grounds)(Emergency calls only accepted which must come through the school's office)
- The Recycling of plastics and bottles
8. Students taking part in their own personal hygiene (keeping toilets clean and making sure there's always toilet paper, soap, hand towels available)
9. Daily mobile classroom garbage collections (Which is then in turn recycled)
10. Tutoring by friends or by higher grade students (Which in turn helps senior students interact with junior students and vice versa)

A full lists of all 53 programs and photos of participation can be found enclosed

The director and staff of Piyajatpattana School find each year as our programs are gaining interest within the school. The programs are also being taking up by other schools which is very pleasing and satisfy and rewarding to all of Piyajatpattana School community. We are constantly updating and adding new programs as we feel necessary which in turn gives all our students more opportunity to participate in something which gain them personal satisfaction. Our programs participation base is also open to students to EVSP.

3. Background information or reasons why the school created this programme

Some useful background information of Piyajatpattana school.

Piyajatpattana School is situated approximately 110 kilometers from Thailand capital city, Bangkok, in rural Nakhon Nayok. The school was built in 1989. The school has very close link with HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn and Chulachomklao Royal Military Academy.

The programme started at Piyajatpattana School is in respect of our King and all Royal Family. As our beloved King will be celebrating his 84 birthday. The King is a great man who has done so much for the love of Thailand and Thai people who is greatly loved by all Thais. Thailand is rapidly changing our values are changing all the time and some of the changes are not as good as one first things as the changes bring into questions our traditional Thai values.

Thailand is changing daily with the rise in the world of drugs and the crime that follow this problem of worldwide. And Thailand is taking an active role with implementing new solution in combating these problems.

People poverty and the lack of social caring and the ever increasing high demand for resources needed in this area are many and we all must take an active role to the solution, each supporting one another. Thailand's Population is ever increasing and it is all our duties to look after each other and.

The environment should be of great concern to all Thai with solution needed for pollution global warming and other needs.

Today new breed of young teachers not only have the responsibility of giving our children a formal education which includes Math, English and Science but also personal values self respect, the respect to others and a sense of duty to the community in general. We must also thank the new teachers of today who are also charge with teaching about today's environmental need.

In 2011, a decision was made to implement the EVSP program into our school curriculum as time has gone by the programs which started then on a small scale has grown to be one of the leading institution for other schools to follow, with the programs ever increasing year by year. We can see the benefits coming from our students which in turn flows onto the local community, we know this from feedback we get from parents and all who supports the school in the EVSP program.

All EVSP programs are monitored by staff for their sustainability for students to undertake. This includes the benefits to be gained to each individual student. A very close look is taken in respect of the safety of the students involved in each program. A review and regular updates are a key factor in keeping all EVSP programs up to date for their sustainability and teaching. This is done through staff and school director, parents and management teams, and also the management and staff of the Moral Centre in Bangkok Thailand.

Summary of results:

From the start of the EVSP program in 2007 up until today 2013 we have had many high achievements and pleasing results in all areas. Our proudest achievements must be the growth of our students, and the start up rate of other schools wishing to take part in our leading programs. We have had many personal successes over our journey which is encouraging to all the staff and students to keep the programs going forward. All the students involved have openly admitted how much they have enjoyed and grown within the programs.

15. Plan for sustainability and plan for the future

To maintain all the programs to the highest standards possible and add more students and schools to participate and uptake our programs. Keeping in mind that high standards of each mini programs is more important than the number of programs participated in.

We find at Piyajatpattana School that most of a programs and activities complement very well with the school curriculum. And all staff get a great deal of personal satisfaction in seeing the students grow with the programs on offer.

Plan for the future:

First and foremost is to maintain the highest standard we can. In all our programs at Piyajatpattana School and hopefully be a modern and model school for other schools to be a base for them to follow. At the same time, encouraging other businesses and business organization with in our school community to sponsor ongoing programs or by offering support of new programs.
