

How SEAMEO Online Series are useful to your professional development?

The present situation of the world with COVID-19 pandemic brought changes in the different sectors of society especially in the education sector. Because of this, face-to-face interaction is impossible but learning should not stop. Thus, webinars become so helpful at this moment.

SEAMEO online webinar series is a highly effective tool in professional development. It broadens one's perspective when it comes to education in this time of pandemic. It gives a wide spectrum on how South East Asian educators cope to improve the educational system. It presents different topics that enhances the capabilities of educators in facing challenges, issues and concerns despite the situation of the world. Its initiative and commitment to help improve educational institutions to still offer good quality education is very evident. Its innovative programs and lectures provide more information and knowledge on online teaching. It also provides opportunities to develop new ways of teaching and learning. Its desire to educate people in this generation is really a big help to abreast ourselves in this new normal way of teaching. It encourages every teacher to be more productive, effective and efficient.

Learning and developing professionally while hoping is our best way of fighting this pandemic.

Thank you, SEAMEO!
