

Mr Chan Chun Sing
Minister for Education
Republic of Singapore

Mr Chan Chun Sing was appointed Singapore's Minister for Education on 15 May 2021. He is also Minister-in-charge of the Public Service since 1 May 2018.

He was previously Minister for Trade and Industry and responsible for driving Singapore's economic and industrial development. He was also Deputy Chairman of the People's Association, where he oversaw national efforts to foster social cohesion.

Mr Chan's earlier appointments included Minister in the Prime Minister's Office and Secretary-General of the National Trades Union Congress (NTUC). At NTUC, he expanded the Labour Movement network to represent all working people in Singapore. Mr Chan also served as Second Minister for Defence and Minister for Social and Family Development (MSF). At MSF, he was responsible for improving social service delivery, enhancing social safety nets and strengthening support for families in Singapore.
